

Design Review Committee Homeowner Member Application

By completing and submitting this application, I am stating my interest in serving on the Candelas Design Review Committee. The Design Review Committee (DRC) considers design and improvements to property, landscaping, and variances. Scheduling for the DRC meetings will occur after the committee has been formed, and applicants will be asked for their availability at that time. Applicants should have a vast knowledge of all aspects of the Candelas Design Guidelines in order to be successful committee members. During these meetings, the DRC:

- Reviews design plans for single family and semi-custom homes
- Reviews Architectural Review Applications for improvements to property (including but not limited to - deck additions, solar panels, pergolas, sheds, landscaping, etc.)
- Reviews new paint color requests for existing homes
- Approves or denies variance requests
